The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

2.6 Innovative processes adopted by the institution in Teaching and Learning:

Where there is commitment and sustained efforts, there is growth and achievements. The college strives to bring forth innovative methods in the field of education and administration. For, the educational goals can be reached with the help of sound administration. Many of the faculty members have evolved innovative methods to make their teaching effective. But, they haven't been patterned to be used by others. The staff has inspired the students to bring out ideas for new project works so as to build India a mighty nation.

Preparing question banks for the use of students is one of the best practices followed in the college. This system makes the students familiar with the University question patterns and subsequently raises their confidence-level considerably. Coaching the students with a set of question banks has yielded fruitful results.
