

Programme Outcomes (B.A., & M.A., Degree Courses)

(2015-16 to 2020-21)

Name of the Programme : B.A., (History) & M.A., (History)
Academic Frame Work & Content : Following / Adhering to the Curriculum, Syllabus
Evaluation system designed by Periyar University,
Salem-7, Tamilnadu.

Objectives

1. To educate students to understand the discipline of History through the study of a variety of Historical process at work.
2. To make students aware of the connection between the past and present to design the future of the students
3. To inculcate universal human values in the minds of the students through a deeper analysis of the historical personalities as History is a reservoir of human experience and wisdom
4. To make the students appreciate the utility of History as the most reflective among the Social Science
5. To integrate the latest advancement made in knowledge of History into the new syllabus scheme

Programme Outcomes

1. The Higher Education in the discipline of History provides a wonderful opportunity for the students comes from the educationally, economically backward class students to empower themselves.
2. The Study of History substantially helping the Student to get select in the State and Central Government Civil Services.
3. The study of History extensively helping the Student to get select in the State Police Services and Central Military Services.
4. The study of History widely helping the Students to get selected in the School Teachers, College Lectures and University Professors.
5. By studying the past, the students able to develop the leadership quality in a considerable manner
6. By studying the past, the students able to understand the present Socio-Economic and political condition of our nation in a better way.
7. The study of the past gives the very much the idea of Equality, Liberty and Fraternity, which the students community has been applying in Open Society.
8. The historical studies makes the Students Community as a good human beings

The Specific Outcomes

Regional History

1. The Students study the regional history and understand about the particular regional culture, society, economy and art, architecture
2. The regional history provides a certain kind of values in making the future of the students.
3. The regional history provides a certain degree pride among the students.
4. The regional history gives certain kind of knowledge in making the future of the Student Community

National History

1. The study of National History gives the idea of Nation and its significance
2. The study of National History provides a wider concept of Nationalism among the students.
3. By studying the National history, the students came to know the Socio-Economical and Cultural diversity of the nation.
4. The National History gives the concept of the National Unity, National Integrity in a substantial manner.
5. The National History provide an overall view about a nation, which enables the students to develop the brotherhood among the students
6. The students have been studying the different part of the Nation and it able to know uniqueness of the various regions of a country.

World History

1. The study of World History provides an idea of connectedness among different geographical area.

2. The World History gives an idea of World Civilization and its significance
3. The World History gives a proper understanding about the how did the World Society and Culture evolve in a particular way
4. The World History makes the students to understand about the different pattern of the political system, which had evolved throughout the ages.

Archaeology

1. The study of the Archaeology makes the sense of antiquity of our Culture and Civilization
2. The study of Archaeology enable the students to become the Archaeologist in the Central and State Government Services
3. The knowledge acquired in the Archaeology help the students to become Epigraphist and Museum Curator.

The Contemporary History

1. The study of the Contemporary History gives a wide knowledge to the Students Community about the Contemporary Society, Culture and Economic Pattern of a Nation
2. The knowledge acquired in the Contemporary History extensively helping the Students Community to select as Diplomats and Translators across the world.